The price of The North American Review, published monthly, is thirty-five cents a single copy, or four dollars a year, in the United States, Porto Rico, Cuba, and the Philippine Islands. Subscribers in Canada should add to the yearly subscription price 36c. for postage, and those in foreign countries 96c. Remittances may be made by money order, bank check, draft, or registered letter. Renewal orders if sent in promptly insure no break in the receipt of copies.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW, 171 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK CITY

NO matter where you live, New England, in the Mississippi Valley, or on the Southern Seaboard—to think nationally, you must supplement your local journal with the New York newspaper carrying the most enlightened Washington correspondence. New York is the second largest city in the world. It is the capital of the western hemisphere, the American city most informed on international affairs. Its oldest, most authoritative and most forward-looking newspaper, THE NEW YORK EVENING POST, is a friend, a news service, and an adviser—that no American citizen of affairs can afford to be without.
